From "As we Understood"

True wisdom starts with a heart full of faith, not a head full of facts. (New York p. 205)

When we feel the absence of God, remember, He hasn't moved. (New York p. 188)

...My spiritual growth has been slow...It's a never-ending road, but not a tiresome one, because around every curve is a new happiness. (Louisiana p. 226)

I held many things in my hands and lost them all, but whatever I placed in God's hands, I still possess. (South Carolina p. 152)

Though no one can go back and make a brand new start, anyone can start from now and make a brand new end. (Anonymous p. 185)

The purpose of my Fourth Step is not to abuse myself, but to reasearch myself. Jacinta Y. Oregon Forum April 2005

News from your BR AIS Alateen Coordinator

We had three Al-Anon members apply for certification. All three passed the background check and have been assigned WSO ID numbers. Unfortunately there is only one Alateen group in our five Districts (Denham Springs).

Living and/or loving an alcoholic does effect all members of the family. Encourage members to bring their children to the meeting so that they will learn to use Alateen's Twelve Step Program of recovery.

Love in service,
Pebble B. Area 22 Alateen Coordinator
